STARTLING MURDER.

A YOUNG MAN KILLED AT CHURCH. rom the Decatur Magnet, 18th. Last evening an altercation occurred a Wheeler's school house, a mile north of Oakley, this county, where religious ser-vices were being held, between Benjamin Mussleman, of the Garver settlement, and a young man named Henry Forrest, which resulted in the latter dealing the former three strokes with a dirk knife, which produced death a few minutes after-

It seems that the parties had a few words before the religious services began, and they both entered the building and after services were over, in passing cut of the house, in the crowd Forrest insultingiy and tauntingly looked Mussieman in the face, when the latter told him that he did not want anything to do with him. As soon as the parties got out of doors, a young man named Walton, a comrade of Forrest, who lived with his father on Forrest's mother's farm, handed Forrest a dirk knife, when he struck at Mussleman with the knife. The latter threw up his arm, and received a severe cuton his right wrist, when the knife glanced off and struck him in the temple. Forrest follow-ed the blow up in rapid succession until he had dealt Mussleman two stabs in the side, when the latter sunk down against the house, supporting his head with one hand and remarked, "they have dealt foully with me—they have killed me." and died a few minutes afterwards.

Mussleman, the murdered man, was about 25 years old and married. Forrest about 19 and Walton 20. The former is thought to have been under the in-fluence of liquor when he committed the terrible deed.

A revolver and a pair of brass knuckles were found on Forrest, and a revolver and a knife, that did the execution, on Walton, They were both brought down in town and lodged in jail, the Marshal taking charge of their horses.
